

ACTIVITY 1

1. Read each instruction carefully.
2. Write your answers in one whole sheet tablet paper

ACTIVITY 1

Instruction: Read the article "The Importance of Entrepreneurship." Write down your explanation for each question below

THE IMPORTANCE OF ENTREPRENEURSHIP

1. According to this article, what are some of the way's entrepreneurship promotes a nation's economic health? [5 points]
 - Entrepreneurship plays a vital role in strengthening a nation's economy by generating jobs, fostering innovation, and creating wealth. Since 1980, entrepreneurs have contributed to millions of jobs, with a significant portion of start-ups already employing workers and planning to expand their teams. Beyond job creation, entrepreneurs are key drivers of innovation, responsible for about two-thirds of all new inventions. These innovations not only boost productivity but also pave the way for new business ventures. This ongoing cycle of job creation and innovation is a crucial engine for economic growth, ultimately raising living standards across the board.
2. What evidence does the writer of this article give to prove entrepreneurs make positive contribution to a nation's economy? [5 points]
 - The writer highlights various pieces of evidence to showcase the positive influence of entrepreneurs. For example, the Kauffman Foundation study reveals that nations with high entrepreneurial activity tend to experience greater economic growth, with about one-third of this growth attributed to entrepreneurs. Additionally, since 1980, entrepreneurs have generated roughly 34 million new jobs. Most start-ups also hire at least one employee, with many intending to expand their workforce within a year. These facts clearly demonstrate the vital contribution entrepreneurs make to economic development.
3. The reading above does not have a conclusion. Provide one by writing a paragraph of at least 3-4 sentences. [10 points]
 - The conclusion, entrepreneurship is a essential driver of monetary fitness and vitality.by growing jobs, fostering innovation, and generating wealth, entrepreneurs now not handiest contribute to immediate economic increase however also lay the basis for sustainable development within the long term. As countries keep to navigate financial demanding situations, supporting entrepreneurial initiatives need to be a priority for policymakers and stakeholders. Encouraging a thriving entrepreneurial surroundings can lead to accelerated.